Snowstorm Hits Midwest Today

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The second big snowstorm of the new winter whipped into the Midwest today after dropping up to 2 feet of snow in the southern Rockies.

Warnings of heavy snow and near-blizzard conditions went out to the area between northern New Mexico and northern Missouri and southern Iowa.

Notices of hazardous-driving conditions were issued for Missouri, Oklahoma, Nebraska, southern Iowa, Illinois and most of Indiana.

In northern Illinois snow was developing in southern and western portions in the morning and early afternoon, and was expected to spread over the entire area by nightfall. An accumulation of several inches was likely, the Weather Bureau said.

Skies began clearing in the Gallup, N.M., district. A foot of snow had piled up at the Gallup airport and 7 inches in Las Vegas, N.M.

Highways in northern New Mexico that had been closed during the night were opened today. But state police reported snow in the Santa Rosa area on U.S. 66 was slowing east-west traffic.

The Weather Bureau reported that snow in the southern Rockies measured up to 2 feet.

Moving eastward, the storm tossed snow on Kansas, western Missouri and western and central Nebraska.

Three inches of snow fell in six hours in Garden City and Salina, Kan.

Light snow fell in the Great Lakes region.

Eisenhower Leaves Hospital This Afternoon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is scheduled to leave the hospital this afternoon following his Dec. 12 gall bladder operation.

There has been no report from Walter Reed Army Hospital on his condition since Thursday, when he was said to be recuperating rapidly.

Eisenhower, 76, plans to go to Palm Desert, Calif., early in January from his Gettysburg, Pa., home.

Writing in the current issue of Reader's Digest, Eisenhower called for a limit of 12 consecutive years in office for any member of the House of Representatives.

Eisenhower recommended that members of the Senate be limited to two six-year terms, plus any partial term they have served.

He also feels that House members should have terms of four years rather than two and should be elected during presidential voting years.

Limiting the tenure of House members, he said, would assure Congress of "a constant infusion of new blood from business, the professions and from the working world where most of us live."

Because House members are elected every two years, he said, it is likely that a president will find halfway through his term that the House is dominated by the opposition political party.

"It surely makes the machinery of government work less efficiently," he wrote.

Seek New Food From Crude Oil, Bacteria

By FRANK CAREY
WASHINGTON (AP) — Promising prospects for a major new protein food made by mixing living bacteria with crude oil products were reported by scientists today.

A team working on the project said it could be a significant food source for developing countries which might be competitive in price with skim milk powder.

For folks who could be squeamish about eating food derived with the help of bacteria, the researchers pointed to yogurt, vinegar, cheese, sauerkraut, cured meats, soy sauce and other foods already in this category.

Living yeasts might also be used instead of the bacteria in producing the protein, Dr. John G. McNab of the Esso Research and Engineering Co., New York, and Prof. Louis R. Rey of Nesle-Alimentana, South America, said in a report prepared for the

N. Vietnamese Flee Under U.S. Fire

By ROBERT TUCKMAN

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — A battalion of North Vietnamese regulars overran positions of about 170 U.S. cavalrymen in the Crow's Foot area near the central coast before dawn today and inflicted heavy casualties, but finally broke and fled under intensive American fire.

Cavalrymen sweeping the battlefield at dawn found 32 enemy bodies and 44 fresh graves. Some of these men of Hanoi's 22nd Regiment, 610th Division, evidently were killed by Communist fire when they ran into a trap set in the hope that Americans would do the running.

The Americans were about 60 troops of C Company, 1st Battalion, 12th Cavalry, 1st Cavalry, Airborne Division, and 110 artillerymen from two batteries totaling 10 howitzers. The artillerymen fired at point-blank range to help stem the onslaught.

About 250 of the estimated 600 enemy regulars — apparently positioned during the two-day Christmas truce — slashed into the egg-shaped American perimeter (Turn To Page Seven)

Bombings Can't Avoid Civilians Says Pentagon

By SEYMOUR M. HERSH
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon has acknowledged that civilian areas in North Vietnam have been damaged during U.S. air raids but declares that only military targets have been scheduled for attack.

The Defense Department statement said, in part: "It is impossible to avoid all damage to civilian areas, especially when the North Vietnamese deliberately emplace their air defense sites, their dispersed POL — petroleum, oil and lubricants — sites, their radar and other military facilities in populated areas, and indeed sometimes on the roofs of government buildings."

Pentagon officials said the statement was issued in response to questions from the New York Times.

The U.S. statement emphasized that American "policy is to target North Vietnamese military targets only, particularly those which have a direct impact on the movement of men and supplies into South Vietnam."

"These targets include roads, railroads, bridges, railroad junctions, POL facilities, military barracks and supply depots."

"They also include those anti-aircraft and SAM — surface-to-air missile — sites which endanger the lives of American pilots."

BOY DROWNS TRYING OUT HOLIDAY SLED

CHICAGO (AP) — A 4-year-old boy drowned in a park district lagoon Monday as he and his brother tried out their new Christmas sleds, police said.

Their father rescued one of the lads, but was unable to pull the victim, Fernando Pepin, to safety.

"We were all having so much fun," said the stunned father, Juan, 30, "and then the ice gave away and we were in the water."

He told police he yanked his other son, John, 6, to safety. "He was still looking for the younger boy when we got there," said Police Sgt. Edward Kosciniski.

A fire department helicopter was brought to the Humboldt Park lagoon on the Northwest Side. Its crew spotted the body, broke the ice with pontoons and brought it from the water.

Sato Calls For Election In Japan

By KENNETH ISHII
TOKYO (AP) — Japanese Prime Minister Eisaku Sato today called a parliamentary election Jan. 29 which his conservative party is expected to win despite charges of a "black mist" of corruption.

Sato's Liberal-Democratic party controlled 278 of the 467 seats in the House of Representatives dissolved by the prime minister, almost double the 141 held by the Socialists, the biggest opposition party.

The election will be Japan's ninth since World War II, the first since November 1963, and the first under Sato. Eligible voters will total 63.5 million.

Sato pledged to clean house after his administration was shaken by a series of scandals, including disclosures that most Diet members don't make complete tax returns, charges that members of his party were involved in questionable banana imports and illegal trading of government forests, and huge gifts to the party by a sugar refinery that received generous government loans.

The Liberal-Democratic party re-elected Sato its president Dec. 1 by a reduced margin that reflected dissatisfaction among party members with his response to the corruption charges.

McNab and Rey said that a number of technical and economic problems remain to be solved but "we are confident that all of these problems can be solved and that single cell protein can represent a major new source of protein," possibly within the next decade.

Find Bodies Of 3 Youths; Charge Neighbor

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — The bodies of three teen-age boys — two brothers and their friend — have been found. Police have charged a neighbor of the youths with three counts of murder.

Vaughn Murphy, 15, his brother, Steve, 13, and Will Binzel, 14, all of nearby Homewood, were last seen Christmas Night as they went to purchase supplies for a holiday camping trip. Their bodies were found Monday.

Shelby County Sheriff C.P. Walker said David McCarter Jr., 25, also of Homewood, had been charged with three counts of murder in connection with the deaths.

The authorities, who had said earlier the boys apparently were slain by a sex deviate, were non-communicative about the arrest.

"It's too early to release any findings concerning the findings as they will have to be studied closely and at length before we can be sure of anything," Asst. State Toxicologist Robert Johnson said following his post-mortem examination.

Witnesses said the youths had severe head injuries.

8 More Convicts Escape From British Prisons

By RONALD THOMSON
LONDON (AP) — Eight more convicts have escaped from British prisons, bringing the total for the Christmas weekend to 23. Only four have been recaptured.

Nearly 1,000 police with tracker dogs searched the bleak moorland for five convicts who overpowered two guards Monday at Dartmoor Prison and scaled the 30-foot wall.

Three other convicts slipped away from Leyhill Open Prison late Monday night and vanished into the rainy, misty countryside.

Two men were recaptured Monday who had escaped from another open prison in Derbyshire Christmas Eve.

The start of the convicts' Christmas rush coincided with the publication last week of a report from Earl Mountbatten that Britain has not a single secure jail. Mountbatten was commissioned to investigate the prison situation after master spy George Blake escaped from Wormwood Scrubs, in London, in October. Blake has not been recaptured.

The five Dartmoor fugitives, all robbers serving terms ranging from 4 to 15 years, brought the number of escapes from the forbidding old prison to 15 this year.

3 YOUNG STRANDED PHOTOGRAPHERS RESCUED FROM PEAK

ESTES PARK, Colo. (AP) — Three stranded Boulder, Colo., photographers were rescued from 14,255-foot Longs Peak, south of here, Monday just before a blizzard pounded the mountain.

The three — Gerald Brown, 17, John Squires, 19, and Bill Prather, 19 — spent a day and a night on the mountain in sub-zero cold.

They had traveled to the area Sunday in hopes of photographing two other men who were scheduled to climb the sheer 1,000-foot east face of Longs Peak.

The climb was postponed because of poor weather.

2 BOYS PERISH AS OIL HEATER BLAST STARTS FIRE

EAST PEORIA, Ill. (AP) — An explosion in an oil heater set an East Peoria home ablaze Monday, killing two small boys and severely burning their father, officials said.

Coroner Louis Imig of Tazewell County identified the victims as Thomas and Michael Cole. Their father, Joseph, was taken to a hospital with severe burns. Witnesses said he ran from the home with his clothes on fire.

Imig said the boys were two and one years old, but said he had not learned which was the older. Four other Cole children playing in the yard of the home, a converted garage, were not injured.

Fire officials estimated damage at least $4,000. The home at 231 Elizabeth St. was destroyed.

Soviets Report Record Grain Crop For 1966

By FRED W. COLEMAN
MOSCOW (AP) — Agriculture Minister Vladimir V. Matskevich announced today a record grain crop of 171 million metric tons for 1966. But he said some wheat purchases in the West are still likely.

The figure topped an earlier Soviet estimate for this year of a record grain crop totaling between 160 million and 165 million tons.

Matskevich told a news conference that good weather played a role in the crop this year. But he said that increased yields per acre of farmland helped produce the record crop.

Matskevich said that until two years ago the Russians had stressed opening up new farmland and put only minor emphasis on increased yields on existing farmland.

He said increased supplies of farm equipment and mineral fertilizer made the increased yields possible.

Despite the record grain crop, Matskevich said in answer to questions, the Soviet Union is likely to buy wheat for the next two years at least.

He said this is because it is cheaper to ship Canadian wheat across the Pacific to the Soviet Far East than to ship Ukrainian wheat there from European Russia.

He said such purchases in Canada would free wheat grown in European Russia for Soviet needs at home and export commitments abroad.

The Soviets are committed to additional purchases of Canadian wheat over the next two years under a long-term agreement.

Mansfield Urges Great Society Re-Examination

By HARRY KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield set wheels in motion today for a suggested "major re-examination" by the Senate of "Great Society" programs and older controversial laws such as the draft, income tax and foreign aid.

Mansfield issued his recommendations for a "thoroughgoing, second look" at major programs from Medicare and civil rights to farm subsidies in a letter to the Senate's 17 committee chairmen.

Such studies, the Montanan said, could find rough edges, overextensions and gaps in newer programs, and update and check equity of administration handling of older laws such as Selective Service.

Mansfield said his recommendations were not in response to Democratic election losses or complaints by Democratic governors about administration of some programs.

He noted that he had been saying for more than a year that it was time for Congress to "stop, look and listen."

Nor, he said, were Vietnam war costs the reason for Congress to pause and re-examine.

"With or without Vietnam, in my judgment, the Senate of the United States, through its committees, would have a responsibility for beginning the kind of top-to-bottom oversight which is suggested herein," he said.

Johnson Spends Day Working At Ranch Desk

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson, making far less news in recent days than usual, is supposed to spend the day again working at his LBJ Ranch desk.

Press secretary George Christian did not say what matters are due for the President's prime attention.

Since his arrival Dec. 16 for the holidays, Johnson has made far less news than in past years.

The parade of official visitors from the ranch to press headquarters in Austin for news conferences has been largely missing. Direct contacts with news-men have been at a minimum.

Some speculate that Johnson may want to concentrate on economic, military, financial and political problems greater than he has faced in the past.

Christian said Johnson plans to remain at the ranch until after New Year's Day.

But Children Stick Together Parents Killed, Home Burned

RACINE, Wis. (AP) — First the parents died in an auto accident, and then their house burned down in a Christmas weekend fire, but the five Rogers girls, aged 2 to 15, and their big brother are sticking together.

"I thought it would be best, I didn't want them to split up," he said.

Barbara, 15, Patricia, 11, Deborah, 8, Lisa, 5, and Sue Lynn, 2, were only their pajamas when fire drove them from the house. Some Christmas gifts, a leopards, Richard stood barefoot in the snow and said, "The kids had a good Christmas — up until last night."

Just two weeks earlier their father, Richard Sr., 47, and mother, Vivian, 38, died in a two-car crash at a highway intersection. Richard Jr. insisted on keeping the girls together.

"I thought it would be best, I didn't want them to split up," he said.

Richard earned $100 a week as a laborer at a metals firm while attending high school in Racine. He cared for the younger children for part of the day until his sisters could take over.

Richard said the youngsters would have to rely heavily for a while on their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Murray, until things are straightened out.

25 Killed On Illinois Highways

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The grim Christmas weekend traffic count has come to an end, with at least 25 persons killed on Illinois roads and highways.

The count, which began at 6 p.m. Friday, ended Monday night at midnight.

A crash just east of Decatur Monday night killed a Rock Island woman, Mrs. Leona M. Youdas, 45, critically injured her son Jerry, 21, and seriously injured her husband Joseph, 50.

Two accidents, both on Saturday, took four lives. Mrs. Beverly Rhunaw, 39, and Berny Stach, 45, both of Cambridge, were killed on a rural road near Cambridge; and two Springfield Valley men, Julian J. Delgado, 35, and James Hansen Jr., 18, were killed in a collision in Springfield Valley.

Fiery Suicides Prevented By Pact In India

By R. SAKAOPAN
AMRITSAR, India (AP) — A last-minute agreement by Prime Minister Indira Gandhi averted the suicides by fire Monday of six Sikhs, ended the 10-day fast of Sikh leader Sant Fateh Singh and removed a grave threat of communal violence.

Fateh Singh sipper orange juice offered by Hukam Singh, Mrs. Gandhi's emissary, after they conferred on Sikh state of Punjab Suba.

"Everything has been amicably settled," Fateh Singh said. Hukam Singh, speaker of the lower house of Parliament and a Sikh, came to this walled city in northwestern India only two hours before the Sikhs planned to set themselves afire. The six waited nearby as the talks went on past the deadline.

Fateh Singh had threatened to burn himself today.

Mrs. Gandhi agreed to arbitrate the disposition of Chandigarh, now the capital of both Punjab Suba and the adjacent Hindu state of Haryana. Both states were formed from the old state of Punjab. The Sikhs want Chandigarh all to themselves.

American officials said they were not perturbed by the thaw in Soviet-Turkish relations, which began in 1964. They pointed out that Turkey was merely emulating the detente which is taking place between Western and Eastern Europe.

Kosygin Ends Precedent Breaking Visit

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) — Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin flew home today after a precedent-breaking official visit and an agreement to continue to improve Turkish-Soviet relations.

Kosygin was the first Soviet premier to visit Turkey. The tightest security guard seen here in recent years protected him.

Talks during the visit centered mainly around economic and cultural projects. At a state banquet Monday night, both the Soviet leader and Turkish Premier Suleyman Demirel expressed satisfaction with the exchanges.

It was Kosygin's fourth trip outside the Eastern Communist bloc this year. Unlike his trips to Egypt, Finland and France, the American presence in Turkey was obvious throughout his stay.

The Turkish air force transport that carried him around Turkey was American-made, and the nattily uniformed honor guards which greeted him wherever he went were American-trained.

Kennedy Book Dispute Goes To Judge's Chamber

By JOHN VINOCUR
NEW YORK (AP) — The dispute over "The Death of a President" goes into a judge's chambers today with Mrs. John F. Kennedy's attorney favoring a postponement of hearings on her move to block publication of the book.

Author William Manchester, hospitalized with pneumonia, and Harper & Row, publishers of the 300,000-word manuscript on the assassination of the president, have been ordered to show cause in state Supreme Court why they should not be barred from bringing out the account.

A total of 720 fatalities was recorded during the Christmas weekend in 1965.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The nation's Christmas weekend traffic death toll fell far below the all-time high mark set a year ago — and broke a trend of nine successive holiday records.

Tabulations today showed the total for the three-day yuletide celebration was 570. This compared with a nonholiday count of 391.

The Christmas holiday count didn't come close to the National Safety Council's advance estimate that between 650 and 750 Americans might die in motor vehicle accidents.

UNCLE WOULD BURY UNCLAIMED BODY OF SOLDIER NEPHEW

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A farm worker has asked permission to bury his soldier nephew, whose body had gone unclaimed for two weeks while the Army hunted a relative.

John Campos presented baptismal papers Monday at the Presidio of San Francisco to show he was the uncle of Sgt. Richard Campos, for 24 of his 26 years an orphan, who was killed Dec. 6 while on combat patrol in Vietnam.

The Army said a decision on whether he gets the body is to be made at the Pentagon.

The uncle said he was the brother of Nieves Campos, the boy's mother, who had died at the age of 19.

The Draft Versus Army Of Pros

At first blush, the idea seems eminently logical: In today's push-button, nuclear-missile, electronic age, the modern army should be composed of highly skilled, highly paid professionals. The unpopular and unequal draft should be done away with entirely, except in time of total mobilization.

Push-button warfare, however, remains strictly in the realm of the theoretical. It is to be hoped that it stays there. All the wars and military actions this nation has been involved in since the advent of the atomic bomb have been the traditional kind. They have been fought by men who carried rifles, crawled through mud, dug foxholes, took prisoners.

No machine has yet been built which can do these things. Furthermore, it is difficult to conceive of any great number of men volunteering for such service, no matter how attractive the pay.

Lt. Gen. Louis B. Hershey, director of Selective Service, sees not only difficulty but danger as well in the idea of a volunteer army. He wants no part of mercenaries.

When the country gets to the point where the average citizen does not want to defend himself, then I don't think it makes much difference if anyone else does. We're goners."

The general may exaggerate, but he has a point. The average American citizen is as ready to defend his country as he ever was, but in this day defense cannot wait until the enemy is at the gates. A large, well-prepared army of rifle-carrying soldiers, backed by a civilian reserve of service veterans, is essential to national security and will be essential as far as we can see into the future.

The unpopularity of the Vietnam war, its seeming remoteness from the area of national defense and the consequent distaste with the draft that sends men to fight in it, should not be allowed to obscure that fact.

There may be room for improvement in the Selective Service system, but until such time as the world is safe from wars and rumors of wars, the draft seems here to stay.

Peas-In-Pod Theory Brings A Warning

According to the "convergence" theory, the United States and Russia are tending to become more and more like each other.

Russia is approaching the United States as a mature and complex society. Having developed basic heavy industry, it is now moving toward producing an abundance of consumer goods. The United States in turn is tempering the deficiencies of the free enterprise system with increasing expansion of government's role in economic planning and social welfare.

According to the theory, as the two systems develop similar institutions and ways of life, the ideological differences between them will become unimportant. The implication is that similarity breeds content; two similar societies aren't going to fight each other.

One scholar disagrees. The whole convergence theory is a gross oversimplification, says Bertram D. Wolfe, a research fellow at Stanford's Hoover Institution on War, Revolution and Peace.

Citing Nazi Germany, he asks, "Can we forget that it was the technologically most advanced country in Europe, with the best social welfare laws, the highest degree of literacy and the greatest number of Ph.D.s. that developed first the most extreme militarism and then one of the most rabid forms of totalitarianism?"

What history teaches us is not the lesson of convergence but of divergence, asserts Wolfe. The Communist ideology and totalitarian structure of China and Russia differ from each other, he says, even as do the nationalism and exercise of great executive powers in plural and open societies by Charles de Gaulle and Lyndon Johnson.

In other words, the convergence theory is fine — as a theory — but don't base defense strategy upon it.

Communism Is Creeping
Cancer In North Thailand

By Ray Cromley
Washington Correspondent
NORTHEAST THAILAND (NEA) — The man had been a senior commander in the Ho Chi Minh Communist Lao army in Laos for some years back.

"You people don't know how deep our preparations run," he said. "Take this example. About 15 years ago, the Thai police let out the contract for building a border fort in this area. A certain contractor won the bid. He built the fort with 300 men. Two hundred of those workers were our troops. That is, they were Ho's guerrillas. We know the fort inside out.

"This is the sort of careful planning that has gone into the infiltration of northeast Thailand.

"We've moved at this slowly. For 15 years our men have circulated in the northeast. For one thing, we've been looking for poor unhappy farmers whose ties are closer to Laos than to Thailand. They're most susceptible. We've taken the most susceptible of these men out, trained them, brought them back to work their own neighborhoods."

A Thai long-time northeast businessman whose job gets him around much of the area — estimates a fourth of the far northeast's farmers feel a greater emotional attachment to Laos than to Thailand.

He marks on the map in little circles the areas where the Laos emotional influence is strong. He points out the stage-by-stage growth of the Communist underground in this far northeast Thailand region.

This underground structure he describes has expanded slowly over the past 15 years from the Laos border across most of the northern part of the country. It's been a hop-and-skip growth, jumping from one circled area to the next and spreading like an oil spot out from the heart of each circle.

The former Ho officer says: "Our other major objective was the large Vietnamese community here, the families which moved to northeast Thailand during the war against the French. Most of them have not become part of the Thai community."

The Thai businessman makes another grouping of circles to show where these Vietnamese groups are strongest.

Cities in this region stand out as islands in the circled Communist areas.

The businessman jabs his pencil at the cities. "Much of the business and money lending is controlled by Chinese merchants," he says. "They donate to our civic activities. But they are not for Red China for schooling. No one knows how they leave Thailand. One day, suddenly a boy is gone. They also send considerable sums of money to Communist China."

"We know there are Peking agents among these Chinese merchants. But we don't know who they are. This Red organizing among the Chinese, too, has been going on for at least a decade."

The Chinese businessmen are all over Thailand. But the Vietnamese emigrants and the people emotionally oriented to Laos are concentrated in the extreme northeast.

So far, underground communism is a critical problem only in this relatively small north-east area.

The Communists are having recruiting troubles as they try to move out of this region into other areas in Thailand.

This could be accomplished by a majority of the Democratic members at their caucus Jan. 9. Rep. Sam Gibbons, D-Fla., who led the fight to reduce Powell's powers as chairman last session, is planning the strategy for having him ousted.

A major weapon in the move will be the forthcoming report of a House Administration subcommittee that investigated the payroll and travel expenditures of Powell's committee and found that somewhere between 75 and 100 airline trips, paid for as official trips by staff members, were taken by someone else.

Powell's preference for lolling in the sun in the Bahamas instead of facing the subcommittee's questioning will be used to support the charge that he is unfit to continue as chairman.

Precedent is also against depositing committee chairmen, and the success of this effort, as well as that of the seating challenge, lies almost entirely with Speaker John W. McCormack. Although the speaker has kept out of the fight until now, his past record of kindness and compassion toward erring members and his love of the House and its traditions would indicate he will seek the softest possible solution for the Powell problem.

The new budget may show that LBJ's won't on poverty needs re-financing.

The World Today

By JOIN BECKLER
WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell's pride appears to be in greater danger than his seat in Congress from the challenge being readied to bar him from the House when Congress convenes Jan. 10.

Even if he is denied the right to be sworn in with his 434 colleagues — as seems most likely — there is almost no chance he will actually be excluded from membership at that time and his Harlem district declared vacant.

Not since the Civil War, when three border state representatives were expelled for treason, has a member been kicked out of Congress. In 1900 a polygamist member-elect from Utah was denied a seat and in 1919 a member charged with favoring Germany in World War I was excluded, but eventually seated when his district twice re-elected him. And that is about the extent to which Congress has used its power to judge the fitness of its members.

What is expected to happen Jan. 10 is that Powell will be asked to stand aside until a special committee investigates the case against him and makes a recommendation. That's what was done in the case of the much-married Mormon, and Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D-Calif., who plans to make the Jan. 10 challenge, says he is thinking of following the same course.

It could take six months or a year for such a committee to complete its work. Meantime Powell would be legally a member of the 90th Congress, entitled to his $30,000-a-year salary, his office staff and his free mailing privileges.

All he would lose is his right to vote.

If the committee should recommend that Powell be barred, approval by the House would cut off his salary and vacate his seat. But by that time Powell may have purged himself of the contempt of court in New York that is largely responsible for his current difficulties.

Because history, tradition and precedent all tend to blunt the effectiveness of the challenge to Powell's seat, some of his opponents also plan to try to take away his chairmanship of the Education and Labor Committee.

This could be accomplished by a majority of the Democratic members at their caucus Jan. 9. Rep. Sam Gibbons, D-Fla., who led the fight to reduce Powell's powers as chairman last session, is planning the strategy for having him ousted.

A major weapon in the move will be the forthcoming report of a House Administration subcommittee that investigated the payroll and travel expenditures of Powell's committee and found that somewhere between 75 and 100 airline trips, paid for as official trips by staff members, were taken by someone else.

Powell's preference for lolling in the sun in the Bahamas instead of facing the subcommittee's questioning will be used to support the charge that he is unfit to continue as chairman.

Precedent is also against depositing committee chairmen, and the success of this effort, as well as that of the seating challenge, lies almost entirely with Speaker John W. McCormack. Although the speaker has kept out of the fight until now, his past record of kindness and compassion toward erring members and his love of the House and its traditions would indicate he will seek the softest possible solution for the Powell problem.

THE DOCTOR SAYS
Safest to Cut, Not Pull,
Hair from a Mole

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Q — In a recent column you stated that hair protruding from a mole should be removed only by cutting with scissors. I have always removed a single hair from a small brown mole (about once a month) with tweezers. What harm will this do?

A — It has apparently done no harm in your case but there is always the danger that irritation of the mole will stimulate premalignant cells to become cancerous.

Q — What is a benign nevus?

A — This is a mole that is not cancerous.

Q — I have narcolepsy and have taken Ritalin, Dexedrine and Desoxyn but they have done me no good. What would you suggest?

A — In this disease a person may at any time of the day get an uncontrollable desire to sleep. The sleep is not prolonged or continuous but the attacks can be very dangerous if they occur when the victim is driving a car.

The three drugs you mention are helpful to most victims. They all act in the same way. You might try a different type of drug that has been used to treat this disease, such as a combination of pentylene-tetrazol and niacin (Metaxel, Napiet or Nicozol) ordeanol (Deaner). They all require a doctor's prescription.

Q — Is narcolepsy hereditary? Are there any symptoms besides the drowsiness?

A — The cause of narcolepsy is unknown. Heredity does not seem to be a factor. This is a one-symptom disease.

Q — A friend has been taking Azulfidine for nine months for inflammation of the bowels. Does this drug have any bad side effects? She also takes Theragrain. Is there any danger from taking them for a long time?

A — Azulfidine is a sulfa drug that is widely used to treat ulcerative colitis. Its side effects include nausea, headache and skin rashes. These can usually be controlled by reducing the dose.

Theragrain is a multivitamin tablet. This drug can be taken indefinitely in the recommended dosage and is especially useful for persons with severe colitis because they can't take any fruit or vegetables in their diet.

Q — I carry nitroglycerin for attacks of angina pectoris. Do these tablets deteriorate after a time?

A — Because they volatilize slowly when exposed to the air, your main supply should be kept in a cool, dry place and protected from light. Carry with you only the number you are likely to need in a day.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Make Friends Living with People

Get off the social merry-go-round occasionally and enjoy your home.

By ANN LANDERS
Dear Ann Landers: Your reply to the high school boy who stuttered was correct — he should speak to his school counselor. But I wish you had gone a step further and said, "The counselor will probably refer you to a speech therapist."

Speech therapy is a relatively new field and too few people know about it. True, stuttering is caused by an emotional problem, but it is still a speech problem.

I am a speech therapist and I'd like to suggest ways that parents, teachers and friends can help the stutterer:

1. Allow the stutterer to talk. Don't "help" him by completing his sentences or changing the subject.
2. Don't show embarrassment when he stammers and is unable to finish a word.
3. Never tell the stutterer to "start over" or "take a breath" or "speak more slowly." This only makes him more self-conscious.
4. Remember that everyone is non-fluent occasionally. We are all grateful when nobody makes a point of it. — DAYTON THERAPIST

Dear Dayton: I appreciate your letter. You have educated millions of people today — including Ann Landers. Thank you.

Dear Ann Landers: Two years ago I began to take out a divorced woman who was 42. I was 55. After several months of keeping steady company she told me she was pregnant. This woman had grown children and was a respected person in the community. I felt that the humiliation of having a child out of wedlock at her age would be a devastating experience, so I married her right away.

Two months later she told me she was mistaken and she was not pregnant after all. Then the trouble started. She spent most of her time with her married children. I was left to rustle up my own meals and do my own laundry. Our apartment looked like hogs lived there. It soon became obvious that I was getting nothing out of our marriage but bills to pay. So I left.

My friends and family think I'm a heel. I can't tell them why I married the woman in the first place. Or can I? — CON-DEMND

Dear Condemned: —No, you can't. And just in case you are sitting around feeling sorry for yourself, I'd like to remind you that you were old enough to know better than to get involved in a mess like "that", Bub.

Dear Ann Landers: I'd like to tell "Nothing Wife" that unless she develops a little more patience, she'll no longer be married to a man who is arrogant because he stopped drinking. Instead she will find herself married to a drunk again.

I'd like to ask "Nothing" to evaluate herself. Did her husband drink too much when they were married? If so, there must have been something wrong with her, too, or she wouldn't have married him.

Every woman whose husband is trying to stay sober should look upon him as a child who needs praise and encouragement. The first year an alcoholic quits drinking is as difficult as his last year of alcoholism.

My husband hasn't had a drink in 11 years. I am very proud of him and I let him know it. I know, too, that I helped him win the fight — and so does he. — BEEN THERE

Dear B.T.: I am passing on your counsel to "Nothing Wife" for what it's worth — and I think it's worth a good deal. Thank you.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

The Mature Parent

For Child, Death in Family Is Gauge of Mortal Powers

By MURIEL LAWRENCE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
DEAR MRS. LAWRENCE: When my mother-in-law passed on three months ago, I did not fly with my husband to his home town for the funeral. I felt our two girls were too young to go with us, so I stayed at home to look after them. They are aged 13 and 16 and I did not want them exposed to all the morbid details about their grandmother's illness and death that would be rehearsed by their aunts and uncles. My husband resents the position I took. I am sure you understand why I felt it was wrong to take the girls to this funeral.

ANSWER: Of course, I do. You're an American—one of the many Americans to whom death is something you pretend hasn't happened or is a little excursion into Hushabye-Land for a restful afternoon nap. And so I appreciate your desire to shield your children against the "morbid" reality.

However, I have little sympathy for it.

I think it's a mistake to shield older children against the "morbid" of family funerals. I think it's a mistake not only because later an inevitable contact with death can come as a deep shock to them but also because such overprotection does us a disservice.

It is educative experience for our older children to see us gripped and helpless at the death of a close family member. For children of the age of yours, the sight of our sorrowing helplessness suggests the limits of our power to make everything cozy and comfortable for people we love. And the limit of that power is a very important thing for them to take in.

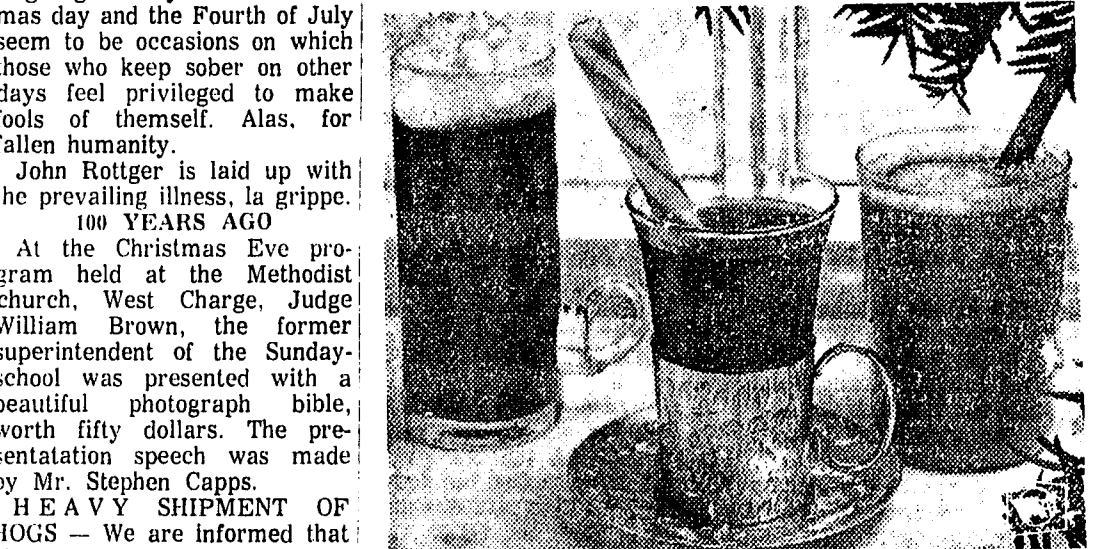

While little children are entitled to regard us as gods gifted with unlimited powers to make them comfortable, it is dangerous for the adolescent child to endow us with this supernatural ability. We can certainly ease the hurts of cut knees, of stuffy winter colds and the upset stomach acquired by the small child's eating of too much candy. The hurts resulting from the adolescent child's self-indulgence, we are less able to ease.

A Landage, for example, doesn't staunch the bleeding from the wound of a teen-aged daughter's illegal pregnancy. Nor can group kettles allay the pain of fractured bones broken as a result of an adolescent son's drunken driving.

Thus, to see us break down into the helplessness of sorrow over death of a parent is good for adolescent children to see. It tells them that we can no more jump them over the consequences of youthful folly than we could jump our dead parent over the consequences of age and illness.

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Here are three festive hot coffee drinks designed for quick warm-ups and good conversation on the coldest of days.

On New Year's Day, serve mugs of sweet and sassy Coffee Grog with cinnamon stick stirrers. For a more formal occasion, choose rich, dark, Branded Caffe de Cioccolata crowned with whipped cream. Nonalcoholic but spirited Hot Spiced Coffee, the candy cane member of our trio, is ideal for the younger set. Any one of these hot coffee drinks is bound to "break the ice" for your wintertime entertaining.

Branded Caffe de Cioccolata
1-3 cup cocoa
3 cups hot, strong coffee
6 tablespoons brandy
Whipped cream
Grated orange peel
Dissolve cocoa in hot coffee. Pour in 6 cups or glasses. Add 1 tablespoon brandy to each cup. Top with a small spoonful of whipped cream sprinkled with orange peel.

Hot Spiced Coffee
3 cups strong coffee
3 tablespoons sugar
8 whole cloves
6 whole allspice
2 pieces stick cinnamon, 2 inches long
Peppermint candy canes or sticks
Combine coffee, sugar and whole spices. Bring to boiling point. Remove from heat. Cover. Let stand 5 minutes. Strain. Pour into small glasses. Use candy sticks as stirrer. Makes 4 or 5 servings.

Base:
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar
Few grains salt
1/4 teaspoon each cinnamon, nutmeg, allspice and cloves
Cream butter. Blend in sugar, salt and spices. Makes about 1/2 cup, enough for 12 6-ounce servings.

To make the drinks, put 2 tablespoons grog base in each 6-ounce mug. Add 3 tablespoons light rum, 2 tablespoons whipping cream, a 1-inch square each of lemon peel and orange peel. Stir to mix. Fill mugs with hot, strong coffee. Use cinnamon sticks for stirrers.

U. OF I. PROFESSOR AWARDED NATIONAL MEDAL OF SCIENCE

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—William Cumming Rose, professor emeritus of chemistry at the University of Illinois, was named a recipient of the National Medal of Science for 1966 Saturday night.
Eleven scientists in the fields of biology, engineering, mathematics and physical sciences were announced by President Johnson to receive the medal, highest honor the federal government can bestow for scientific achievement.
Rose was cited for "the discovery of the essential amino acid threonine and for the subsequent brilliant studies elucidating the qualitative and quantitative of man and of animals."

Also named to receive the medal was Subrahmanyam Chandrasekhar, professor of theoretical astrophysics at the University of Chicago.
Johnson said the Medal of Science "serves as a symbol of the nation's desire to recognize outstanding achievement, to set an example for our youth, and to depict to the world the depth and variety of American accomplishment in science and engineering."
The medal was established by Congress in 1959. The 1966 awards were on the basis of recommendations by a committee headed by Dr. H.E. Carter of the University of Illinois.

Neat Storage Now Saves
Trimming Time Next Year

By POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
"DEAR POLLY — When you take the lights off your Christmas tree, pack them away so they are easy to put on next year. I use about 25 strings of lights in my decorations. I remove each string separately, remove the bulbs, put the plug end and the socket end together, fold several times and then secure the string together with a piece of old ribbon. They are stored neatly in a box and, when taken out again, there are no tangles. I put the bulbs back in the sockets as I fasten each string to the tree. This keeps the bulbs from bumping each other and breaking the filaments.—MRS. F. C.

Polly's Problem
DEAR POLLY—I would like to know how to restore the original shine to the chrome on polished steel handles of an electric stove. The shine was dulled by sauerkraut that splattered

while cooking.—MAY

DEAR POLLY—Did you ever need a small funnel to use when filling spice jars or other similar containers with small openings? If so, cut off the corner of an envelope with about three inches left on each side of the corner and then cut across the point of the resulting triangle to have a handy, disposable funnel.—MRS. O. R. B.

DEAR POLLY—I want to tell Mrs. M. W. that when I wash my small braided rugs I lay them on a flat surface and scrub, on both sides, with a brush and detergent suds, then rinse the same way. Let them lie flat as they dry. Turn often and always smooth out flat. If you do this on a porch, cement walk or a place where the air really circulates, the drying will not take so long.—MRS. D. L.

DEAR POLLY—Small braided rugs should be carefully mended (if they need it) BEFORE washing. While they are still damp after washing, spread on the floor, using brown paper or plastic to protect the floor from dampness. Smooth out occasionally while the rug dries and it should not curl or wrinkle when completely dry.—MRS. H. S.

DEAR GIRLS—Pug shampoo can be used on wool braided rugs, following the same procedure for drying as when washing cotton ones. Sometimes the "ruffling" that results after cleaning or washing is caused by different fabrics in making the rug. Some may have been washed, some not, and then shrinking occurred in those that had not been washed.—POLLY

By BOB THOMAS
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Is Los Angeles ready for living theater? The acid test begins next April, when two sparklingly new playhouses will open for business.

The reputation of Los Angeles as a poor show town seemed to have been confirmed recently with the bankruptcy of one arena-type theater and the shutting down of another. But civic leaders hope to dispute that reputation with the completion of a $35-million "cultural complex" called the "Music Center."

First came the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion — named after the fund-raising member of the publishing family — which has offered symphonies, concerts and light opera to capacity audiences for two years.

The Mark Taper Forum, a jewel-like 750-seat theater with a stage that juts into the audience, opens April 9 as the home of the Center Theater Group, which formerly flourished under the auspices of UCLA.

The Ahmanson Theater, also named after a benefactor, will offer "The Mai. of La Mancha" beginning April 12. Capacity: 2,100.

The hopes for the two new theaters were expressed at a news conference presided over by Lew Wasserman, movie bigwig who is board president of the Center Theater Group. He introduced the group's new director, Elliot Martin, 39-year-old producer of "Never too Late" and the current Broadway attraction, "Dinner at Eight."

Why should he leave a successful Broadway career to bring theater to this Western outpost? "Because in New York the theater is confined by economics to playing to a certain audience with more or less formula material," the producer explained.

Many times, he added, he found a play of exciting content but couldn't cast it because name players would not sign for the run-of-the-play, which commitment was needed to pay off the investment.

"But Los Angeles offers the opportunity that exists nowhere else but in London," Martin said. "Here we find a vast pool of creative people in films and television. We can offer them the chance to act, direct and write for living theater without committing themselves to a year's contract. They can work in the theater and in films and television at the same time."

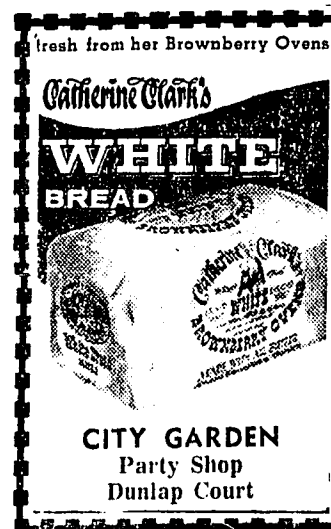

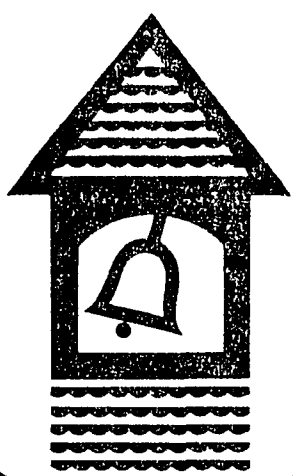

Gordon Davidson, 33, artistic director of the Mark Taper Forum, hopes to attract some star names to appear in plays for six-week runs. He "announced" that the forum would commission new works, the first being "Witnesses," a dramatization by William Murray of the Kilty Genovese murder on the streets of New York in 1964.

Will the new theaters show a profit?

"It is possible, but highly improbable," said Wasserman, who added that a civic campaign is being conducted to raise funds for the expected deficit.

Change In British Drinking Laws Sought

By EDDY GILMORE

MANCHESTER, England (AP) — "Just watch," said John Ridley, "and you'll see why it's called the coroner's half hour."

The time was 10:25 in the evening. The place was a pleasant Manchester pub, one of more than 72,000 pubs in Britain. "Time, gentlemen, please," sang out the pubkeeper, please, "please, gentlemen, time."

Five men standing in a group in front of the bar ordered another round of drinks, and while the barman was making them, they gulped the contents of the glasses before them.

"Still time for another," sang out one of the five men. "The same as before, Bert, and this one's on me."

Behind the bar, bartender Bert handed out another round, and these five glasses of straight whisky — like those half hour is the worst time of the day for the police."

An inn keeper, and one who likes to drink, Ridley added: "Drunken driving is a terrible crime, and let me say this, I'm convinced the punishment isn't as tough as it should be. Eliminate the coroner's half hour and tighten up the punishment. That's what I say."

Ridley and his friends are trying to get one million signatures of British subjects on a petition to change the nation's drinking laws.

The trial of West for murdering the defense was approaching its climax. East, the principal witness for the prosecution, was in the witness chair and the district attorney was conducting the examination.

D.A.: "Describe the play of the hand."

East: "The king of clubs won the first trick. My ace took the second and West's queen won the third. West shifted to a trump and declarer proceeded to run off all seven of his trumps. On the last trump lead West unguarded his king of spades and South made his contract."

D.A.: "That is all. Your witness."

Merry Payson, the great defense attorney, rose. He asked, "You have played bridge for many years, haven't you?"

East: "Yes."

Payson: "When did you first know that South held seven trumps?"

East: "I guess when my partner showed out on the second trump lead."

D.A.: "Objection. East is not on trial."

Judge: "Objection overruled. The witness will proceed."

East: "I threw diamonds and spades alternately. My hand could not take a trick."

Payson: "I move for a directed verdict of acquittal for West and recommend that East be held as an accessory before the fact. East should have discarded all four of his spades as his first discards. This would have given West a complete count of the spades and West wouldn't have gone wrong."

Chiefs Begin Final Drills For Title Game

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Kansas City Chiefs ended a three-day holiday and began their final week of drills today for the American Football League championship game at Buffalo New Year's Day.

Snow was forecast, but Coach Hank Stram has said that unless the weather gets unreasonable the Chiefs will continue their practice in Kansas City.

The Bills left Buffalo for five days of practice in Winston-Salem, N.C., where the climate is warm.

The Chiefs are looking for cold weather with possibly snow and a slippery field when the division titlists play for the league championship.

But Stram is undaunted by the weather predictions. "Contrary to what most football fans think," Stram said, "a slippery field favors the passing game."

"Look at it this way: The offensive players know where they are going, the defensive players have to react. It's tougher to get traction for the pass rush and the defensive backs have to be cautious because they are afraid they will slip."

The Chiefs, with the most potent offense in the AFL this season, will go into the game as slight favorites although they will have to contend with the heralded Buffalo defense.

The Chiefs began their regular season last September by whacking the defending champion Bills 42-20. Then Buffalo came back to spoil Kansas City's home opener in October by beating the Chiefs 29-14.

PACKER WORKOUTS HAMPERED BY SNOW
TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Green Bay Packer Coach Vince Lombardi could hardly be blamed if he declined the next time somebody suggests Tulsa's Skelly Stadium as a December training site.

It wasn't even certain the Packers would finish their final week of drills here for their Jan. 1 encounter with the Dallas Cowboys for the National Football League championships.

Lombardi was perturbed when the Packers arrived Monday to find Skelly Stadium's turf still covered with a thin layer of snow which fell last Thursday.

The Packers worked out in the snow and scheduled another drill for today after obtaining assurance the snow would be scraped off and the field covered.

Workers cleared the field and put down a plastic cover, but the weather bureau forecast heavy snow today, possibly extending into Wednesday.

Lombardi said the Packers would stay as planned if the

Ralston Reveals He Is Now Pro

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP) — America's top amateur tennis player, Dennis Ralston, made official today what had long been rumored. He has turned professional.

"Professional tennis offers me a future while amateur tennis in the United States offers a player nothing," Ralston told The Associated Press.

Thus ends the amateur career after seven years of the still at 24 boyish, strawberry blond Californian who has played all over the world and won everything in sight except for the two big ones.

"Any regrets?" he was asked. "Yes," said Denny, as his intimates know him, and he named the two big ones — Wimbledon and the U.S. National at Forest Hills.

Ralston said he preferred not to divulge the financial terms of his pro contract but he reportedly signed for three years for $100,000.

The contract was signed with Wallace M. Dill of the International Professional Tennis Association. Dill announced the contract Monday.

Ralston said he has thought about turning pro for over a year. "I've got a family and I do have to start looking toward the future," he said.

Ralston's pro career will get under way next month in Australia, followed by competition in the U.S., Europe and South Africa.

The opposition will include veteran Pancho Gonzales of the U.S. and Australians Rod Laver, Ken Rosewall and Lew Hoad.

76ers Continue Rolling In NBA

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Not counting games against the Boston Celtics, the Philadelphia 76ers are 41-1 against the rest of the National Basketball Association since last March.

But then again, who's perfect? Led by Wilt Chamberlain "Mr. Inside" and Hal Greer "Mr. Outside" the fabulous Philadelphia 76ers whipped the Cincinnati Royals 134-118 Monday night to establish a new NBA home-court consecutive victory string.

The 76ers, who lead the Eastern Division with a phenomenal 33-3 record, have won 30 straight regular home games — 14 last year and 16 this season. The new mark breaks the old standard set by Minneapolis in the 1949-50 season.

The last time Philadelphia lost at home was a 126-120 defeat by the Los Angeles Lakers Jan. 7, 1966.

Monday night the astounding 7-foot-11 Chamberlain poured in 38 points, handed out 10 assists and took down 32 rebounds.

Greer, the "Mr. Outside" of the 76ers offense, scored 35 points from where he does it best—the outside.

In other games, Boston ripped Los Angeles 121-106, New York dropped Detroit 114 - 109, St. Louis downed San Francisco 120-111 and Chicago defeated Baltimore 108-96.

met at two points in the initial attack. They knocked out one 105mm howitzer with mortar fire and damaged two others with satchel charges. They dropped a grenade down the barrel of a 155mm piece, but it was a dud. The Americans were driven into a ring only 30 yards wide.

"I felt like Custer," said one of the artillery officers, Lt. Michael C. Livergood of Billings, Mont.

Air strikes, fire from a cavalry platoon on high ground nearby and shells from artillery at a landing zone 3 1/4 miles away helped to break the attacks.

The action was the major combat on a day which also brought an assassination attempt against a leading South Vietnamese politician in Saigon and three raids by B52 heavy bombers against Communist positions in South Vietnam.

Dr. Phan Quang Dan, 48, a liberal politician and a member of the Constituent Assembly drafting a new constitution, was wounded slightly today when an explosion threw his car up on the curb as he was driving home. He told newsmen he did not know whether the blast was caused by a device attached to his car or whether something was thrown from the roadside.

Five Vietnamese bystanders also were wounded, two seriously.

Three weeks ago another leading South Vietnamese politician, Tran Van Van, was shot and killed by two terrorists as he drove in a Saigon street.

In other developments: U.S. planes followed up the Christmas truce with a speedy resumption of the air war against North Vietnam Monday only 12 miles from the center of Hanoi.

The American and Vietnamese military commands reported 122 incidents occurred in South Vietnam during the cease-fire but declined to charge the Communists with true violations. Most of the incidents were described as minor.

Also in Chicago, Richard P. McCarthy, 26, of Chicago, was killed when his car struck a parked auto on the Southwest Side.

Friday night accidents took at least nine lives. They included: Esther M. Fung, 24, of Carbondale, was killed east of Carbondale in a two-car collision.

A crash near Lockport killed Kelly R. Blankenship, 23, of Joliet.

Gordon Oothoudt, 39, of Zion, died in a two-car crash just outside Zion.

A car missed a curve and struck a tree in Barrington, killing Martin Lyons, 22, of Palatine.

A Decatur man, Charles W. Mathis, 23, was killed in Decatur when his car jumped a guard rail.

Richard Wickline, 28, of Blue Mound, was killed six miles north of Blue Mound when his car overturned.

Manchester, picked by Mrs. Kennedy to write a definitive account of the assassination, was accused in the lawsuit filed by the president's widow of breaking their contract by offering his manuscript for publication without her approval. President Johnson, meanwhile, asked that his staff not discuss the book or the controversy around it following a Newsweek report that the President's recollections of his succession varied sharply with those said to appear in the still unpublished text.

million motorists at home, cutting travel and accidents.

Nevertheless, fatalities far outstripped those of a nonholiday period of similar length. The Associated Press surveyed traffic accident deaths from 6 p.m. (local time), Friday, Dec. 9, to midnight Monday, Dec. 12. The count of deaths then was 391.

The safety council issued an estimate for next weekend's three-day New Year observance when, it said, accidents probably would kill 10 to 90 more persons than on a nonholiday winter weekend.

The New Year traffic toll estimate by the council was 460 to 540 for the period from 6 p.m. (local time) Friday, Dec. 30 to midnight Monday, Jan. 2.

The relatively low count for the holiday just ended broke the chain of holiday records. Each holiday death toll since that of Memorial Day 1965 has set a record.

Thanksgiving weekend, a four-day, or 102-hour period, brought 748 traffic deaths, a record for any holiday.

Earlier holiday tolls this year, all for three-day periods, were New Year 546, Memorial Day 542, July 4, 576, and Labor Day 636.

A two-car crash near Villa Ridge killed Mrs. Emma Schoendorn, 85, of Grand Chain. Near Kankakee, another two-car collision took the life of Terry A. Madison, 42, of Lake Village.

Mrs. Adeline Rygula, 38, died when her auto struck an abutment in Chicago.

Another Chicago accident took the life of John Danielczak, 43, of suburban Cicero. He was killed by a car which did not stop after the accident.

Also in Chicago, Richard P. McCarthy, 26, of Chicago, was killed when his car struck a parked auto on the Southwest Side.

Deep Problem — Villanova, Pa.: In spite of the crippling Yule snowfall, Clem Parker, weary from the snow and his new Christmas gift, a movie camera from his wife, Helen (C), receives a little happy encouragement even though he appears up to his waist with problems. The snow paralyzed public transportation and stranded thousands of motorists.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market showed a fairly sharp loss in moderate trading late this afternoon.

Volume for the day was estimated at 6.2 million shares compared with 7.47 million on Friday.

Key stocks showed losses of fractions to 1 or 2 points. Airlines and other glamor stocks showed wider losses.

After a mixed start the market headed generally lower, worsening its decline slowly as the session wore on. The start of the last trading week of 1966, coincided with the first chance to sell "regular way" and have profits eligible for reporting on next year's income tax returns, thus postponing the tax bite for a full year.

Losses of around 3 points were shown by IBM, SCM and Fairchild Camera.

Down about 2 were United Air Lines, Northwest Airlines, Owens-Illinois Glass, Comsat and Corning Glass.

Down about a point were U.S. Steel, Goodyear, General Electric, Polaroid, Pan American World Airways, Schering and Magnavox.

United Aircraft and Douglas Aircraft rose more than a point each.

All Big Three motors were fractional losers.

Prices declined in active trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Say Cuban Units Like China's Red Guards

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS MIAMI, Fla.

ly created shock troops described by exiles as similar to China's Red Guards are reported on the move in Cuba.

The units, officially called Youth Technical Brigades, reportedly have the dual role of serving as technicians in industries and on farms and making certain the workers are good producers and good Communists.

The official Havana newspaper Granma, which reaches some exiles, quoted Cuban Labor Confederation Secretary-General Miguel Martin as describing the brigades as "a shock troop against indolence, disorganization and lack of discipline."

Mario Fontela, secretary general of the Miami-based Democratic Revolutionary Labor Front, an anti-Castro labor organization, said brigade members wear blue shirts, work trousers and a holster with a revolver.

"Fidel (Castro) imitated the Chinese in forming the same type of groups as the Red Guards," Fontela said. "The functions are the same — overcome the rebellion of the workers."

New Berlin And Triopia Score Waverly Upsets

Franklin, Auburn Score Slim Wins

By Buford Green
Sports Editor

Waverly — Mild upsets by New Berlin and Triopia and one-point triumphs by Auburn and second-seeded Franklin highlighted first-round action in the 16th annual Waverly Holiday Tournament Monday.

Defending champion New Berlin knocked off third-rated Lincolnwood, 57-51, and 14th-rated Triopia edged sixth-ranked Morrisville, 41-37. Second-seeded Franklin had to come from behind to nip the host Waverly club, 79-69, while Auburn went into overtime to get by Girard, 71-70.

In their first-round action Monday top-ranked Glenwood advanced to the second round with a 63-53 count over Northwestern and fifth-seeded Athens, behind the record-breaking performance of Terry Clemens, roared past Mt. Olive, 78-51.

In the first game of the tournament Glenwood rushed to a 34-25 halftime margin then poured in the first eight points of the second half to open up a 42-25 margin that was never really threatened.

Gary Salefski's hot outside shooting shut off several mid threats by Northwestern in the final quarter. Trailing 49-33 entering the final eight minutes, Northwestern rallied behind Jim Woods and got within 57-51 with 3:15 left in the contest. A tip-in bucket by 6-5 Bob Esslinger and a pair of clutch free tosses by Mike Saley at that point settled the issue.

Breaks F. G. Record Athens' Clemens broke the tournament field goal mark of 15, held by three players, with 18 en route to a 39-point effort that netted two points short of the one-game scoring mark of 41 points held by Fred Curis of Mount, now coach of the Rockets.

Clemens had 34 points with six minutes left when his teammates started an effort to let him break the record. Clemens had five shots in the final minutes but missed the bucket that would have tied the mark.

New Berlin led 10-15 and 29-29 at the first two breaks in its upset triumph. The Rockets surged by two entering the final eight minutes and managed to stay just ahead of the charging Glenwood outfit, last year's runner-up, who Kaaz led the victors with 21 points, high for both teams.

Ed Megginson's layup was the only points scored by Auburn in an overtime, but it was the difference as the Trojans nipped Girard behind George Mailey's 26 points. Both clubs held small leads through the contest, with Girard rallying at the finish of regulation time to send the tilt.

Flashes Rally Franklin trailed almost all of their sum victory over arch-rival Waverly. The Flashes' hot-shooting Jean Seymour proved to be the difference with ten points in the final period and 31 for the game.

Waverly led 11-4 in the early going, behind Max Dunseth's three driving buckets, and 19-16 at the quarter. Franklin led briefly at 22-20 and 23-22, but Greg Jackson hit five quick points for Waverly and Steve Timmons pumped in a pair of long-range two-pointers and the Scotties led 39-32 at halftime, hitting a hot 52% from the field.

Franklin got no closer than four points in the third period, with Seymour and Darryl Smith matching Timmons, Jackson and Rodney Ball and the Scotties clung to a 53-47 margin entering the final quarter.

Seymour swished a pair from the baseline to tie the game at 55-55, and again at 57 and 59. Franklin took the lead at 61-59 before the two clubs exchanged leads on four straight trips down the floor.

Seymour's bucket gave Franklin a 66-65 margin and Alan Colwell's two free tosses made it 68-65 with only 42 seconds left.

Down To The Wire Smith added two free tosses with eight seconds left to offset a bucket by Jim Ross and a later bucket by Dunseth, with three seconds showing, to insure the victory. Franklin's seven against no losses.

Franklin hit 48% from the field to Waverly's 44% rate, while both clubs hauled down 30 rebounds.

The difference in Triopia's victory was the Trojans' 47% shooting clip to Morrisville's cold 23% rate. The Trojans led by at least two points after the first quarter but never by more than nine points.

Triopia led 11-8 and 22-18 at the first two breaks, and advanced it to 32-25 entering the closing chapter. The lead grew to 38-29 on a bucket by Terry Suratt and free tosses by Harlan Fricke and Jim Klein.

schmidt with 3:40 remaining. Morrisville got no closer than the final 41-37, scoring the final four points.

Yankee Stars Rip South Team, 27-14

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A team of Yankee stars, eager to impress a flock of pro scouts in the stands, rolled to a 27-14 victory over the Rebels Monday night in the North-South college football game.

Eugene Trosch, 6-foot-6, 247-pound defensive tackle from the University of Miami, was voted the most valuable player for the South, and another defensive tackle, Pete Duranko, 6-2, 235-pounder from Notre Dame, was picked for the North.

The North team, winning only for the seventh time in the 18-year series, powered to a 20-0 halftime lead, then coasted home behind a rugged defense. Donald Crockett, the nation's leading punter from Adams State College in Colorado, boosted the Yanks into a 6-0 first quarter lead with field goals of 31 and 38 yards.

Break Game Open Then, in one minute, 12 seconds of the second period, the Yanks scored twice on a nine-yard pass from Colorado's Bernie McCall to Tulsa's Neal Sweeney and a 20-yard dash with an intercepted pass by Duranko.

Houston's Bo Burris finally found the range for the South in the last quarter with scoring shots of 15 and 11 yards to Gary Rowe of North Carolina State. But the South never got in close shooting distance as the North also scored in the fourth on a nine-yard run by Bo Rein of Ohio State.

The Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., matches Tennessee, 7-3, and Syracuse, 8-2 while the Cotton Bowl at Dallas has Georgia, 9-1, vs. Southern Methodist, 8-2. The Shrine game in San Francisco matches all star teams of seniors from the East and West.

Green Bay, 12-2, and Dallas, 10-3-1, play for the NFL championship in Dallas while Kansas City, 11-2-1, and Buffalo, 9-4-1, are matched in Buffalo for the AFL title.

The Sugar Bowl in New Orleans has Alabama, 10-0, vs. Nebraska, 9-1, the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif., presents Purdue, 8-2, vs. Southern California, 7-3, and the Orange Bowl in Miami pits Georgia Tech, 9-1, and Florida, 8-2.

Two games were played last Saturday. Wyoming beating Florida State 28-20 in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex., and the Blue beating the Gray 14-9 in the Blue-Gray game at Montgomery, Ala.

Top Four College Teams Hold Spots

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS St. John's of New York shook up the Associated Press college basketball poll by knocking off Kansas last week and now Northwestern has shaken up St. John's.

The Redmen dropped the Jayhawks right out of the poll with a 62-44 licking a week ago and earned themselves eighth place in this week's ranking.

But in the opening round of New York's Holiday Basketball Festival Monday, Northwestern nipped St. John's 62-60 and that means the Redmen's stay among the Top Ten could be as short as Kansas' was.

The panel of sports writers and broadcasters left the top four rankings unchanged. UCLA remained No. 1, Louisville second, North Carolina third and Texas Western fourth. Three of those teams play in tournaments this week.

Michigan State, also entered in the Quaker City tournament, slipped five notches from fifth to 10th after losing to New Orleans Loyola last week.

The Spartans' No. 5 slot went to New Mexico, who moved up one notch from No. 6. New Mexico hosts the Lobo Invitational with three other teams entered. It opens Thursday.

Houston moved up two spots to No. 6 and is entered in the Arkansas State Invitational beginning Wednesday. Cincinnati, No. 7, plays St. Joseph's of Indiana Wednesday and Iowa Friday.

Vanderbilt, which moved up to ninth, is off this week. The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, and points on a 10-9 etc. basis:

1. UCLA (31) 319
2. Louisville 272
3. North Carolina (1) 246
4. Texas Western 198
5. New Mexico 134
6. Houston 116
7. Cincinnati 99
8. St. John's, N.Y. 76

Big Ten Teams Try To Improve In Tournaments CHICAGO (AP) — Big Ten teams will try to improve further their impressive 42-18 record against outsiders in a scattering of five holiday basketball tournaments this week.

Northwestern (4-2) got the week off to a good start Monday in the New York Festival, edging eighth-ranked St. John's 62-60.

Seven other conference outfits will be sharpening up for the start of the championship race Jan. 7 in other tournaments. Three of the clubs are cruising along with only one loss—Illinois with 4-1 and Michigan State and Purdue, each 5-1.

Illinois—weakened by suspension of scoring ace Rich Jones, Ron Dunlap and Steve Kuberski—takes on Arizona Tuesday in the first round of the Los Angeles Classic. Also in the meet are Michigan (4-3) going against Georgia Tech, and Wisconsin (3-3) facing UCLA.

Michigan State tangles with Villanova Tuesday in the Philadelphia Festival and Purdue opens Wednesday against Georgetown in the Rochester, N.Y., Classic.

The Portland Far West Classic also starts Tuesday with Minnesota (3-3) meeting Oregon and Indiana (4-2) playing Oregon State.

All the tournaments continue through Friday. In other games, Iowa (5-2) entertains Wichita Wednesday and clashes with Cincinnati Friday on a Chicago Stadium double-header card that includes Loyola against Marquette. Ohio State (5-1) hits the road to face two powerhouses, Duke Thursday and North Carolina Friday.

Considerable interest centers on Illinois, a prime Big Ten title contender until its three players were suspended by the university as part of penalties for illegal recruiting resulting from a previously undisclosed fund.

Without the three for the first time, the Illini downed California 97-87 in an overtime game in the Stadium Friday.

Best One Second Against St. John's Northwestern's Davis had his best one second of this, his first varsity season.

St. John's led 60-59 with 23 seconds to go. The Wildcats had the ball, but no one could get clear for a shot. Finally, with four seconds left, Terry Gamber fired a deperation shot.

It fell short, but Davis leaped, grabbed it and put in a two-point shot. He was fouled and added the free throw.

Davis, who had entered the game for the first time only 3½ minutes before, explained how he happened to be in the right place.

"The odds are that when a man shoots from the right side the ball will come over to the left," he said. "I moved two steps to get there and jumped."

QUINCY MEET OPENS QUINCY, Ill. (AP)—The Oklahoma Baptist Bison, led by 6-foot-8 Al Tucker, open title defense in the Quincy College Holiday Basketball Tournament today.

The 13th annual meet has drawn eight teams and will continue through Thursday.

In addition to the Bisons, reigning NAIA champions, other former winners of the Quincy meet entered include St. Benedict's of Kansas, 1956 and 1961; Northeast Missouri, 1957; and Bellarmine of Kentucky, 1962.

Afternoon first round pairings send St. Benedict's against Northeast Missouri and Morris Harvey against Oklahoma Baptist.

Completing the opening round at night are Bellarmine vs. Western Carolina and Quincy vs. Upper Iowa.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The motto "In God We Trust" was first placed on the backs of some United States coins in 1864. According to The World Almanac, the idea for an inscription came from the Rev. M. R. Watkinson in a letter to Secretary of the Treasury Salmon P. Chase, Nov. 13, 1861. In 1956, Congress designated the phrase as the U.S. National Motto and ordered it placed on all paper and coin money.

FIREMEN ANSWER ALARMS MONDAY

JACKSONVILLE firemen made two runs Monday evening, both involving little fire damage. The first run was at 6:33 p.m. to the residence of Harold Willner, 1231 Center street, where a furnace blower motor had burned out filling the house with smoke.

An hour later a run was made to 922 South East street. Firemen said that a freak condition caused moisture to form in the walls of a vacant house owned by the D. E. Sweeney estate.

The moisture escaping in the attic gave an appearance that the house was on fire. After an examination, firemen determined that there was no fire in the building.

Helen Dickerson Heinen, Known Here, Murder Victim

Helen Dickerson Heinen was well known in Jacksonville having visited in the city many times. She graduated from MacMurray College in 1931 and several years ago was recipient of the Alumnae of the Year Award at the school.

OAK LAWN, Ill. (AP) — An Oak Lawn physician apparently shot and killed his estranged wife, his son and then himself following a quarrel Monday night, police said.

The body of Dr. J. Henry Heinen Jr., 51, an orthopedic surgeon who practiced in this suburb southwest of Chicago, was found in the basement of his two-story brick home. The tragedy was reported by his 83-year-old father, a retired physician who lived with the family.

Deputy Coroner Eugene Siegel said the elder Heinen first found the bodies of Heinen's wife, Helen, 55, also a physician, and the couple's 20-year-old son, Harold. Police said the couple was separated but had reunited for the Christmas holidays.

Siegel quoted the elder Heinen as saying the couple quarreled after Heinen had been drinking. Then he said he heard two shots, ran to the dining room and found the bodies of Mrs. Heinen and Harold. Moments later, he heard a third shot from the basement, went downstairs and found his son's body, a freshly discharged 12-gauge shotgun lying nearby.

Heinen's wife worked for Cook County, officials said.

The dead man headed the orthopedic section of Christ Community Hospital, Oak Lawn, and was once president of Evangelical Hospital, Chicago.

The family lived at 9559 Brandt St., Oak Lawn.
